Alumni Day

Annual National Geographic GeoBee

On January 8, fifth grader Allison Rimmerman became the Elementary School's first female National Geographic Geography Bee School Champion. Both Allison and Junior High Bee Champion Elizabeth “Libby” Piper will be taking the New York State Bee Qualifying Test. The 100 top School Champions will head to Albany for the competition in March.

Sixth grader Jackson Lundfelt and eighth grader Jack Benstead finished in the 2nd Place Runner-Up positions. Congratulations to all the participating students for their hard work.

Poetry Out Loud

Congratulations to all of the students who participated in this year’s Poetry Out Loud competition! On January 9th, these students took to the stage to perform works of poetry to an audience of their peers and faculty judges. Good luck to Hope and Kelly as they go on to compete at Brockport School!
Scholar-Athlete Teams

We are proud to announce that our fall varsity athletes have done something remarkable. Through their hard work and dedication, every varsity team achieved NYSPHSAA Scholar-Athlete Team Awards. Congratulations, everyone!
HS receives new science equipment

This fall, the High School science program garnered a $25,000 America’s Farmers Grow Rural Education Grant. On Friday, January 4, Agriculture Teacher Jeffrey Parnapy received a delivery. The five modest shipping boxes contained $25,000 worth of state of the art equipment to support the agriculture, biology, chemistry, and physics programs.

#ReadingRocks

Mrs. Wahl’s 6th graders described Chapter 8 of "Percy Jackson: The Lightning Thief" in one hashtag.

Pinecone birdfeeders

Shana Feissner’s 1st grade class made their own pinecone bird-feeders. A great project that included reading and writing!
Elementary School L.E.A.D.
The Elementary School students observed Law Enforcement Appreciation Day (L.E.A.D.) by learning about law enforcement and meeting representatives from the Genesee County Sheriff’s Office including S.C.U.B.A. and K9 units!

Kudos to the Byron-Bergen Faculty Association for volunteering with the Genesee Habitat for Humanity!

There is no school on Monday, January 21 in honor of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.
