News from the Board

Well, spring finally showed up and it moved right into our summer weather, but how wonderful it is after our long and drawn-out winter. Along with the beautiful weather comes our end-of-the-year concerts, field trips, fun fair, our overnight class trips, and of course, the Elementary School Olympics, to name a few of the exciting events. It is so hard to believe that we are at the end of the year already. Where does the time go?

The Board of Education had the pleasure of meeting with the Top 10 students and their families at a recent Board meeting. It is always great to meet these high-achieving students and hear about where they will be headed off after graduation.

Congratulations to this year's senior class. We are excited to report that they are Byron-Bergen's very first class to successfully graduate 100 percent of their members. This is an extraordinary feat that wouldn't have been possible if not for their own hard work, support from the positive role models in their lives, and the love of the people who have believed in their success every step of the way. The Board of Education always looks forward to being at the celebration of Graduation. We love honoring our students and families on this special and long-awaited day.

Best of the luck to our successful students who will be representing Byron-Bergen at Girls and Boys State over this summer. I'm sure it will be a great learning opportunity and a positive experience for each of them.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank everyone for such a great voter turnout for the school budget and bus proposition vote. Your overwhelming support shows everyone involved that we have put together a good budget that works for our community. Byron-Bergen had the largest number of voters in our area, which speaks volumes to how our community values education, and believes in the future of our children. Thank you again.

Be safe and enjoy your summer.

Debra List

Debra List, President Byron-Bergen Board of Education

Retiring in 2018 — Lorie Ellsworth

For the past 11 1/2 years, Counseling Secretary Lorie Ellsworth could be found during her lunchtimes walking with friends through the halls of the Jr./Sr. High School. "The habit started on my second day here," she said. "I walked every day with Gayla Starowitz and Barb Hogan."

Working with her many friends is what Ellsworth will miss the most in retirement. "I love the small size of our school and the feel of community here," she said.

Ellsworth has lived in Bergen for 30 years. More than 20 years ago, she worked at Byron-Bergen schools as a teacher's aide. She left to spend ten years teaching kindergarten at a private school, but came back to us in 2006. "I really want to thank everyone for making the atmosphere at our school so pleasant to work in." Retirement promises lots of traveling. "My husband Jack travels frequently for work, and I'll be able to go with him now." She also plans to work on a fitness routine and explore her family's genealogy. She will spend more time with her two sons, both Byron-Bergen graduates, and their families.

Superintendent's Message

By Mickey Edwards

This is a very exciting time for everyone in our learning community. Your hard work and commitment has paid off. I wish you the best of luck with your future endeavors. I know you will make your alma mater proud. I would also like to thank your families for their partnership with us in your education and add a special acknowledgement to the Board of Education, administration, faculty, and staff who have supported you along the way. Each of you is well prepared to face the future ----whatever that may be. So, never doubt yourself. Never stop working hard. Never stop caring about others. And, never stop learning. Class of 2018, go make great things happen - we believe in you!

Thank you to the Byron-Bergen School community for supporting the school budget for the 2018-19 school year, and congratulations to our elected Board of Education members — Debra List and William Forsyth. Our community had one of the highest voter turnouts among the Genesee, Wyoming, and Livingston County school districts. With more than 570 voters and 448 YES votes, our budget passed with 78 percent. Across New York State voter turnout was low. However, in Byron-Bergen, vote day was a day of art shows, a science fair, a concert, and a chicken barbecue. With the work of our students on display and a strong turnout at the polls, our community proved that this is not a typical community.

The 2017-18 school year was a focused commitment to quality.We had a record number of individual scholar-athletes and 10 sports teams that received the NYS Scholar

Athletic Award. We won three Section V titles and five League Championships. A number of students were selected to GWMEA All-County music programs, and the musical "Carnival" was outstanding. At the Elementary School, we were ranked in the top five of the Genesee Region for Academic Achievement. We had the largest participation in the area at the Genesee Valley Regional Storytelling Competition. Byron-Bergen students impacted Western New York by partnering with "Luggage with Hope of WNY" by collecting and donating 137 backpacks, duffle bags, and suitcases for children who have been orphaned or placed in foster care. These types of activities teach our children just how big an impact they can have on others. Again, Byron-Bergen is not the typical school, faculty, staff, students, or community!

In closing, I want to thank our Byron-Bergen learning community for honoring the importance of public education. On behalf of the Board of Education, I wish you all a safe and relaxing summer and remember, once a Byron-Bergen Bee — always a Byron-Bergen Bee!

School Resource Officer Updates

By Deputy Matt Butler

Finally, the good weather and the end of the school year are both here. I would like to take this opportunity to send out a few safety reminders as we start to think about summer and relaxation. For those of you riding bicycles, please remember to wear your helmet, especially if you are under 14 years of age (it's the law), always obey all traffic laws, always ride with traffic, wear bright clothing even during daytime, don't wear your earbuds while riding, and most importantly, be in control of your bicycle and don't weave in and out around vehicles and blind spots.

Also, for those students who are new to driving and possess a DJ license, you may only operate a vehicle from 5 a.m. until 9 p.m. (unless traveling to and from work) and not have more than one person under the age of 21 years in your vehicle. Being in violation of any vehicle and traffic laws while you possess your permit or DJ could have longer consequences in getting your regular license. The text messages and calls can wait until you arrive at your destination. Please be smart while driving. Remember, there will be extra police patrols during the summer months.

This will be the first year for the Teen Sheriff's Academy which will be held here at Byron-Bergen Central School from July 23–27. This should be a great opportunity for those students who were selected to get some hands-on experience of what it is really like to be a police officer. Congratulations to the following Byron-Bergen students who were selected to participate in this first class: Shaina Dejesus, Rick Hubbard, Shawn Turner and Gianni Vallese. I hope these students like to run!

Thank-you Byron-Bergen, for another great school year and I look forward to the 2018–19 school year.

Jr./Sr. High School Happenings

By Patrick McGee, Principal

The spring is full of great events recognizing our students. I was fortunate to attend our Jr. High Spring Concert, Sr. High Chorale and Singing Silhouettes Concert, Sr. High Band Concert, and our amazing Buzzin' Bistro. Our students' talent was on full display at each event. Kudos to our wonderful music and arts program for the great opportunities they provide to our students. On May 30, we recognized our students and student athletes at our annual Academic & Athletic Awards Night. I am so impressed with the success of our students in the classroom and in athletics. Also this year, we were proud to bring back FFA for students interested in agriculture. On May 29, we celebrated our first year with FFA Awards Night. This was the first FFA event in almost 50 years at Byron-Bergen. Thank-you to teacher Jeff Parnapy and our FFA students for putting this great event on.

On May 17, with the help of the New York State College Admissions Counseling Association (NYSACAC), Byron-Bergen hosted our annual Regional College Fair. Thirty-four schools, ranging from GCC to the University of Alabama, attended the event. The Jr. High gymnasium was filled with Byron-Bergen students from grades 9-11. We were also happy to invite high school students from Oakfield-Alabama, Batavia, Elba, Attica, Rochester Prep, Keshequa, and the WNY Tech Academy. This is the second year we have hosted this event and we hope to continue to expose students to all of the opportunities that exist after high school. It is great exposure for our school to be able to hold this type of event. A big thank you to our College and Career Counselor Rob Kaercher for being a key player in making this happen.

Our BOCES program offers a wide variety of opportunities for our 11th- and 12th-graders in fields such as graphic and culinary arts, building trades, cosmetology, health dimensions, and legal academy, just to name a few. One of my favorite events at the end of the year is attending the Open House for the Building Trades program. Byron-Bergen students in this program worked on building a brand new house from the ground up. This is authentic, applied learning at its best. I am so proud of the work these students accomplished. On June 5, I attended our BOCES Awards Night. We take great pride in partnering with our GVEP BOCES and providing these hands-on opportunities for our students. This was another wonderful night recognizing our students in these programs they thrive in.

We have had such a successful year in athletics! This includes multiple league titles, three sectional titles, a western regional title, and a runner up in the state finals, as well as multiple individual accolades. Of all the accomplishments by our student/athletes this year, the one I am most proud of is that we have 72 students being recognized as NYSPHSAA Scholar-Athletes. This is the true definition of being a student athlete.

One of the most fulfilling parts of my job is watching our seniors graduate. Over the last few months, we got to share many great moments with our seniors such as the Prom, our senior trip to Cleveland, senior breakfast, the third annual senior walk through the Elementary School, and of course, graduation. I've also had the privilege to watch our seniors during their exit projects and through senior interviews. I am confident they are ready to be successful as they leave Byron-Bergen and head into their chosen pathways. I have known many of these students for more than eight years. I am so proud of their growth and wish them the best of luck in the future. This senior class can also say, "Our futures look bright!"

Lastly, this school year has flown by. I am so lucky to work at a school that is as supportive as Byron-Bergen. Thank you to our community, families, our staff, but most of all our student body. I truly appreciate coming to work with the best of the best every day, and am honored to serve in my role as Principal of the Jr./Sr. High School. If you have any questions or concerns, please call me at 585-494-1220 ext. 2401, email me at pmcgee@bbschools.org, or stop in to see me. We are Byron-Bergen!

Builders Club members choose Behavioral Health Treatment Center at Unity for 2018 donation

On May 23, 2018, Byron-Bergen Jr./Sr. High School Builders Club members presented a check for $500 to representatives from Rochester Regional Health's Behavioral Health Treatment and Chemical Dependency Center at Unity Hospital. Led by Builders Club president, 10th-grader Jacey Donahue, the student delegation was welcomed to the Center by community relations managers Tiffany Carnevale, Valerie Donnelly and Brad Pearson from the RRH Gifts Foundation, along with Center Manager Jennifer Esten, supervisor Kristen Weber and Recreation Director David Catalino. The group was accompanied by Byron-Bergen teacher and faculty advisor Andrea Feeney and Byron Kiwanis Club sponsors Robert Wood and President Karen Jaczynski.

Members of the Builders Club, who range in age from 7 to 15, have been working hard in their community this year, helping others and raising money. After researching a number of local organizations, the group decided to donate their funds to the Chemical Dependency Center. After the ceremony, the group learned more about the operations at the organization and then toured the recreation center, where their money will be put to use purchasing new equipment.

Supervisor Weber explained the importance of exercise at the Center. "Many people in recovery have not experienced fun, sober activities for a very long time. The exercise and recreation equipment we can purchase with the help of Builders Club funds will aid patients in setting and achieving goals for themselves. Thanks to these young people, our patients will build confidence that they can persevere and better their lives."

Builders Club member Hannah Catalino (the daughter of the Center's recreation director), strongly advocated for supporting the organization's work. She and the other members recognized that the Byron-Bergen community, like many others, is experiencing the problem of substance abuse, affecting fellow students and their families. Earlier this year, they created handmade cards for the Center to help inspire and motivate recovering patients. "I think what the Center does is important," Catalino said. "I see how deeply the people here care for patients. They all feel it in their hearts and we in the Club do, too. We all wanted to help."

Student members of the Byron-Bergen Builders Club with Byron Kiwanis Club sponsors and RRH's David Catalino (right), who gave the group a tour of the recreation center.

Builders Club has been active at Byron-Bergen Jr./Sr. High School for three years and has about a dozen members. The group began at the Middle School, but has expanded the opportunity to all students in the district who are willing to make the commitment to service. This year, they've volunteered for the Salvation Army and at the Miracle Mile for the Golisano Children's Hospital. They've participated in hurricane relief efforts for Puerto Rico and at the Elementary School's Fall Festival. They can also be seen helping out at community pancake breakfasts.

"Byron-Bergen is a NYS School District of Character and our students support many activities that promote character," said Club advisor Feeney. "Builders Club supports the development of character and leadership. Everything members do during the year is their idea and their choice. They choose to give back, to better their community and to aid those in need."

Elementary School News

By Brian Meister, Principal

Spring has arrived and summer is quickly approaching. Our hallways and certainly our playgrounds have been abuzz with excited children. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank our Byron-Bergen families for supporting us through another wonderful year. It is our pleasure to teach and learn with your children.

In the past few weeks, we took several opportunities to celebrate our excitement for learning. Here are just a few examples of the festivities:

Math Carnival Rolls into Its Third Year — Students were excited once again for our Math Carnival. This annual all-day event incorporated a wide range of carnival-type activities that challenged students' knowledge of mathematics. It's been a tremendous hit, thanks to the talents of Math AIS teacher Diane Taylor.

Elementary School Science Fair — We had over 60 students in grades K-6 participate in our annual Science Fair! This event has become a hit with the students as they explore investigative questions, make hypotheses, and conduct experiments to understand scientific principles. This year's evening event added a special treat, thanks to our Inquiry Based Learning teacher Craig Schroth. All those who attended had the opportunity to engage in robotics and programming through the use of innovative robots called Spheros.

Elementary School Art Show — The Elementary School once again impressed with a wide range of artistic talent using various mediums. This year's show contained some unique and interactive elements. A completely dark room, lit with black light, highlighted student artwork that was created in pastels. Visitors could take selfies with the work as a memento of the night. Many families came to the event and the students were excited to find their projects on the walls. They proudly pointed out their contributions to the amazing show. Special thanks to art teacher Melissa Coniglio for putting together such a great event.

Preventing Summer Regression — Around this time, I always send out information about a common trend in academic achievement and literacy. Throughout the year, we carefully monitor student achievement and are excited to see the growth students make from September to June. The unfortunate truth, however, is that many students suffer from what has become known as "the summer slide" or a regression in reading ability. Research has shown that students who do not engage in language-rich literacy activities for a sustained period of time encounter a stagnation or decline in their reading skills. The good news is that there is an easy solution. Keep your kids reading throughout the summer. While there are many ways to infuse reading into your daily routine, I can recommend five fun solutions from the U.S Department of Education Blog. To get these suggestions and more ideas, please visit their website at https://blog.ed.gov/2012/06/top-5-ways-to-prevent-rusty-summer-readers/

I would once again like to thank all of the families and friends of Byron-Bergen Elementary for their ongoing support of our students and school. Have a great summer. I look forward to seeing you in the fall.

Byron-Bergen Elementary celebrates STEAM

STEAM: Science; Technology; Engineering; Art; Math. The five disciplines were on full display on May 15 at the Byron-Bergen Elementary School's K-6 Science Fair and Art Show. Parents, families and community members were invited to walk hallways filled with more than 500 pieces of colorful art, and see over 40 student-designed science fair projects. New this year were "robot miniature golf," where students programmed robot golf balls to negotiate a nine-hole course; interactive "selfie walls" for fun photos; and a special black light room that gave viewers a whole new perspective on artwork.

The Science Fair and Art Show was the culmination of a year's worth of inspiration and hard work by students at all the elementary school grade levels. Organized by art teacher Melissa Coniglio and science teacher Craig Schroth, the show highlighted diverse creative talents and a wide range of student-driven, extracurricular science projects.

Projects ranged from the interaction of Mentos with soda, hurricanes, and why bees are dying, to what kind of rain occurs on other planets. "Many students have been working on their science projects all year," said Schroth. "They chose their own topics and then completed experiments at home. The Fair is an opportunity for them to show off their work to fellow classmates, and then demonstrate to the public. They are proud to share their results with their families and scores of other science lovers."

Coniglio enjoyed planning the interactive aspects of the show. "I love to see people get really involved with the artwork and the exhibits," she said. "It becomes an experience they can take home with them. It was fun watching kids and parents take pictures under the black light and with the selfie walls."

The Science Fair and Art Show is one of Principal Brian Meister's favorite events. "I love seeing how open our students are to new ideas, scientifically and artistically, and how motivated they are to explore. As educators, we want to encourage this sense of endless possibility and wonder, and give students the opportunity to share their excitement with others."

The walls of the black light room were covered with colorful artwork, like these paintings, inspired by artist George Rodrigue's famous Blue Dog.

Congratulations to the student musicians, and sincere thanks to our Music Department teachers, Laurence Tallman, Kevin Bleiler, Robert Lancia, and Karen Tischer, for preparing them to perform at the following events this year:

Vocal and Instrumental Solo Festivals

Several Byron-Bergen students performed individual solos at the Genesee-Wyoming Music Educators Association (GWMEA) annual Solo Festivals held in January. Students prepared individual solos, by memory, to perform before a judge specializing in voice or specific instruments. In addition, students had to sight-read literature. This unique opportunity provides students with a chance to receive feedback as solo performers, as opposed to performers in a group setting. Judges provide feedback based on the individual musician's tone quality, preparedness, performance ability, technique, and aesthetic quality, among other attributes. Students were selected to perform with the All-County Band and/or All-County Chorus based on their performance scores.

Pesticide Application Notice

The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation enacted a program that requires all schools to provide you with information about pesticide product applications made throughout the school year. Under State law, the school is required to maintain a list of parents, guardians, and staff who wish to receive 48-hour advance written notice prior to a pesticide application. At this time we are informing you that there have been no applications made since the last notification was published in the 2018 spring edition of Focal Point, the Byron-Bergen District Newsletter.

To register your name with the school to be on a 48-hour notification list, send a request to Byron-Bergen Central School District Office, 6917 W Bergen Rd., Bergen, NY 14416. A written request must be submitted annually.

Work begins on our Capital Project

This fall, our students will return to newly-renovated classrooms in the Elementary School primary wing, safer bleacher seating in the soccer stadium, and new roofing at the Jr./Sr. High School. Thanks to the Byron-Bergen community who approved the Capital Project last fall, work on Phase 1, which includes these improvements and more, is slated to begin on June 25, 2018.

"There will be lots of construction activity inside and around the Elementary School this summer," said Principal Brian Meister. "Visitors will be required to use the main front entrance only, and due to safety concerns, the ES Office is the only area of the building that will be open to the public. We will be available in the Office during normal summer hours, 8 a.m. to 2 p.m., to answer questions and help families prepare for fall classes."

"The work is not anticipated to be completed until the start of the school year, so several summer activities that traditionally take place at the ES, like the Summer Meal Program and Gillam Grant Day Camps, will be moved to the Jr./Sr. HS," he said. "The same summer hours are also in effect there and in the District Office, where services will continue normally."

The Capital Project's Phase 1 includes classroom renovations in the ES Primary wing and cafetorium, along with roof replacement at the Jr./Sr. HS and Bus Garage, and new bleachers for the soccer stadium. The district's construction team includes architects Clark Patterson Lee; The Pike Company; general contractor Massa Construction Inc. and roofing contractor Elmer W. Davis Inc. You can see more details on the total plans for the Capital Project on our website at www.bbschools.org/CapitalImprovementProject.aspx

Should you have questions about the Capital Project, please call District Office at (585) 494-1220. For school-related information, contact the Principals: ES —ext. 1005; Jr./Sr. HS —ext. 2401.

Celebrating a successful first year of FFA

On May 29, we held our first FFA Awards Ceremony since restarting our agriculture program after an absence of almost 50 years. The presentation honored our supportive FFA parents, and Certificates of Appreciation were given to many community advisors and volunteers, and district personnel. We were proud to recognize our FFA student officers, a cohesive leadership team who have driven the growth of our new chapter: Garrett Sando (president), Cole Carlson (vice-president), Hallie Calhoun, Isabelle Stevens, Andrew Parnapy, and Seth Sharp. Greenhand FFA degrees, for Sr. High School students, were given to Jacey Donahue and all six FFA officers. Garrett Sando was named the Star Greenhand for 2018. Discovery FFA degrees for Jr. High School students were given to Caleb Carlson, Madelynn Pimm, and Rachel Best. Four students received Proficiency Awards: Cole Carlson (Beef Showmanship), Sando (Employment Interview), Parnapy (Creed Speaking), and Sharp (Agricultural Sales).

FFA President Garrett Sando (r) with advisor and Ag teacher, Jeff Parnapy (l).

The ceremony marked the end of the beginning for the Byron-Bergen agriculture program and FFA chapter. It has been an amazing year for both, with about 15 students getting involved in the hands-on approach to learning offered in the new Introduction to Agriculture Science class, along with the Living Environment class. Students marveled at the opportunity to learn about agriculture as a science course, and to be able to explore it even more deeply through FFA.

"Students are really excited and proud to participate in FFA," said Byron-Bergen's Cornell Ag-certified teacher Jeff Parnapy. "They love the teamwork and leadership activities involved. Our kids have stepped up and taken responsibility for making the decisions and doing the work necessary for the chapter to be successful, to raise funds, and to take part in the community. Our group attended the recent NYS FFA Convention in Rochester and got to meet students from around the state. We're planning to participate at the State Fair and the Genesee County Fair later this summer."

Parnapy says the chapter will begin active competition in statewide FFA contests this fall, and take part in more state and FFA District 9 events and trips next year. He says FFA is undergoing a renaissance, with several local school districts starting new chapters. He also credits the school's Advisory Committee —local volunteer farmers and animal science experts — for their help and guidance. Parnapy will be attending professional development sessions in Animal Science this summer, with the hope of offering it as an additional class in the 2019-20 school year.

Were you a member of Byron-Bergen's FFA in the 1950s-60s?

We'd love to hear from you!

The Jr. Olympic Torch shines bright again

Children and parents, neighbors and friends — they were on sidewalks and porches and front yards in Byron and Bergen on a sunny evening in June to see the Jr. Olympic Torch Run. For the third year, varsity runners from Byron-Bergen High School, escorted by the local fire departments, ran the torch through both towns in preparation for the Elementary School's Jr. Olympic Games.

The runners were grateful for the community's encouragement along the way. They clearly enjoyed being part of the celebration.

Organized by Varsity Track Coach Ken Rogoyski and Elementary School fourthgrade teacher Alyson Tardy, the Jr. Olympic Torch Run revives an old tradition many alumni may remember from the past. The custom of opening the school's Jr. Olympic Games with the running of the torch began in 1976, but fell out of practice over the years. "It's a fun way to connect with our neighbors," said Tardy. "We'd really like to thank the folks at the fire departments for their support. We hope that even more people will take a moment to come out and enjoy the show next year."

UPK had a (beach) ball at their graduation ceremony on June 15. The summer-themed ceremony included a slideshow, songs, and cookies. Now, on to kindergarten!

Our fourth-graders adapted the children's favorite, "Sneaky Weasel" by author Hannah Shaw for the stage. The production included the talents of the entire class, and featured players (l-r) Grace DiQuattro, Joel Lamb, Simone Scharvogel, Megan Jarkeiwicz, and Katherine Rogoyski.

It all added up to another great Math Carnival!

Our sixth-graders were well-prepared to help younger classmates have fun with math during our third-annual Math Carnival at the Elementary School. They did an awesome job — from Muffin Tin Math and Magic Number Cups to face painting, popcorn, and Ping Pong Math. Byron-Bergen Central School District Bergen, NY 14416
